RBI: Default amount to be ceiling for charging penalties on digi loans

MAKING IT CLEAR. Central bank issues clarification on Digital Lending Guidelines

The Reserve Bank of India said the amount under default for digital loans shall act as the ceiling on which the penal charges can be levied. The central bank made the clarification in its frequently asked questions (FAQs) on Digital Lending Guidelines.

(FAQs) on Digital Lemany, Guidelines.

According to the RBI, the borrowers may be conveyed at the time of sanction of a digital loan, the name of empanelled agents authorised to contact them in case of loan default. However, if the loan turns delinquent and the recovery agent has been assigned to the borrower, the particulars of such recovery agent assigned must be communicated to the borrower through email/agent contacts the borrower for recovery. Purther, penal charges such as cheque bounce/mandate failure charges, which are necessarily levied on a per instance basis may not be annualised. However, these charges must be disclosed separately in the Key Fact Statement (KFS) under 'Details about Contingent Charges'. The RBI said reasonable one-time processing fee can be retained if the customer exits the loan during cooling-off period. This, if applicable, should be disclosed to the customer upfront in MESS. However, the service of the customer upfront in MESS.

plicable, should be disclosed to the customer upfront in KPS. However, the processing fee has to be mandatorily included for the computation of Annual Percentage Rate (APR). The central bank clarified that even if some physical interface with a customer is present in the lifecycle of a digital loan, the lending will

WHAT'S FAIR

FLEXIBILITY TO RES
The RBI emphasised that the phrase 'largely by use ofseamless digital technologies' has been used in the digital lending definition to accord operational flexibility to REs in 'digital lending'. Therefore, even if some physical interface (relating to customer acquisition, credit assessment, recovery, and associated customer service) with the customer within the digital loan lifecycle is present, the lending will still fall under the definition of digital lending. However, while doing so, the regulated entities (REs) should ensure that the intent behind the guidelines is adhered to.
